THE DESTINATION ITTERSWILLER, ALSACE

Hôtel Arnold is located in Alsace,
AT THE HEART OF THE WINE ROUTE

Between Strasbourg and Colmar, Hôtel Arnold is nestled right in the center of ITTERSWILLER.

The Alsace Wine Route, stretching nearly 170 kilometers, is one of the tourism gems of Eastern France. Winding through rolling landscapes between the Vosges mountains and the Alsatian plain, it links together some of the most picturesque villages in France !

Created in 1953, this legendary route is a true paradise for wine lovers. It offers the opportunity to discover Alsace's renowned grape varieties, Riesling, Gewurztraminer, and Pinot Gris, providing a full immersion into the region's local expertise and winemaking tradition.

A WELCOMING HOME IN THE HEART OF THE ALSATIAN VINEYARD

In Itterswiller, nestled between vineyards and village, right in the heart of Alsace, Hôtel Arnold welcomes you to a large family home with a charming, traditional Alsatian style.

Located just 35 minutes from Strasbourg and Colmar, this hotel enjoys a magical setting along the Alsace Wine Route.

Half-timbered facades, blooming flowers, and vibrant colors define the architecture of this authentic and enchanting place. No doubt about it, you are in Alsace!

THE RESTAURANT

La Winstub Arnold is a former wine cellar transformed into a restaurant that can host up to 100 guests, right along the Alsace Wine Route.

As a tribute to its roots, a traditional wine press is preserved in the dining room, a unique backdrop for enjoying homemade foie gras, traditional Baeckeoffe, royal sauerkraut, and tarte flambée. Fish also holds a place of honor on the menu.

Regional dishes inspired by Alsatian heritage and crafted with seasonal ingredients delight guests all year round.

Our Chef carefully selects local suppliers who provide us with the finest products!
